What our Clients are saying

Christine Jordens, Boehringer Ingelheim:

"C-Clear Partners has very experienced employees excelling in both the technology side and business side of a CRM implementation in the Pharma industry. From the planning phase till the execution of our project we were able to rely 100% on C-Clear Partners."

Jacqueline Tejada Carnot, Project Management Director Merck:

"In a very challenging project C-Clear Partners showed commitment and flexibility in delivering the Veeva Solution to our local markets. They understood our questions and made sure the Veeva solution was leveraged to the fullest. They have supported us understanding the technology and managing a critical part of the program for us. The collaboration with our internal

What our Partners are saying

Pierre Marsat, Veeva, Veeva Program Manager:

"Through my experience working with the C-Clear team on a global CRM implementation, I was able to witness firsthand a group of highly skilled individuals whose strong knowledge and commitment was instrumental to the program's success. They seamlessly blended into our project team, making it easy to ensure a well-coordinated and tightly managed implementation. I look forward to our ongoing partnership with C-Clear Partners."

James Kelling, Veeva, VP Global Services:

"C-Clear has demonstrated a strong partnership working in collaboration with Veeva to deliver key Technical and Project Management skills. Their industry knowledge and dedication to customer success have made them a valuable part of the Veeva Partner Program."

We focus on bringing value to our customers by identifying our customers' business goals and realising their successes. We have more than a decade of experience in implementing CRM processes for the Life Sciences industry, working as Project Managers, Business Process Consultants, Technical Architects and Developers.

Partnership with Veeva and Salesforce.com

C-Clear Partners does not only partner with its customers and employees. Since several years we have built a strong partnership with Veeva and Salesforce.com, where trust, flexibility and commitment are key. Because of these partnerships, our customers can be assured that all our consultants are well certified and that they can get the support of Veeva and Salesforce.com when applicable.

Veeva

Our proven track record of Veeva and Salesforce.com implementations, using an Agile Scrum methodology, has allowed us to build the necessary accelerators to deliver the project in the quickest and most efficient way. With each new Veeva implementation we try to optimize and find new ways to streamline your processes. Together with our Salesforce expertise we are able to leverage your platform to the fullest and provide our customers with a broad range of solutions.

As Veeva evolves, so do we. We're an early bird when it comes to adopting new Veeva modules as we realize that innovation is essential in the ever changing Life Sciences Industry. Keeping up with new trends and demands and engaging in the customer channel is a must when you want to stay ahead of the competition.

We believe that a Veeva implementation will only succeed when the needs of all stakeholders in your company have been met and the global business objectives of the company can be achieved.

Our Veeva footprint spans nearly all the continents. We're able to operate in global and virtual teams depending on our customers' way of working.
