Veeva and Cvent Announce Integration of Best-in-Class Events Management Capabilities

Industry leaders partner to help life sciences companies compliantly manage global events

PLEASANTON, CA and TYSONS, VA — May 1, 2019 — Veeva Systems (NYSE:VEEV) and Cvent today announced the companies will integrate Veeva CRM Events Management with Cvent's meetings management software. These complementary offerings will give joint customers an integrated solution for compliant end-to-end management of meetings and events, including congresses, conferences, and symposia.

Veeva CRM Events Management provides a modern cloud application to manage live and virtual events with greater compliance, including integration with Veeva CRM to give field teams full access and visibility into engagement activities with healthcare professionals (HCPs) across all channels. Cvent's meetings management software is a comprehensive solution to manage logistics, attendees, and expenses for global events.

Veeva will build and support a standard data connector to integrate the companies' solutions, enabling event, attendee, and speaker information in Veeva CRM Events Management to flow seamlessly to Cvent. Event planners will be able to manage event logistics, including venue sourcing, registration, travel booking, and on-site check-ins using Cvent, with these updates flowing back into Veeva CRM Events Management. This will allow field teams to view the same relevant details as the event planners in Cvent directly within Veeva CRM Events Management for improved visibility into HCP engagements.

"Veeva has tremendous expertise in helping life sciences companies drive compliance across all events," said Anil Punyapu, senior vice president of sales at Cvent. "Our integration with Veeva CRM Events Management will give customers full visibility into all healthcare professional interactions so they can better manage compliance from inception through post-event reporting."

"Our partnership with Cvent will remove barriers in events management so customers can have a complete view into all global events," said Andy Fuchs, vice president of commercial strategy at Veeva. "Event information will be captured and available across both solutions so organizations can drive greater efficiency and compliant engagement on a much larger scale."

Integration between Veeva CRM Events Management and Cvent's meetings management software is planned for late 2019.
