More Than 50 Companies Modernizing Pharmacovigilance with Veeva Vault Safety Suite

Vault Safety applications streamline adverse event management for greater visibility and compliance

PLEASANTON, CA — Oct. 13, 2021 — Veeva Systems (NYSE: VEEV) today announced that more than 50 organizations are adopting Veeva Vault Safety Suite applications to simplify case processing and management. A growing number of emerging biotechs and large enterprises, including a top 20 global pharmaceutical company, are bringing together pharmacovigilance data and content for real-time safety management.

Organizations of all sizes are modernizing pharmacovigilance with the Vault Safety Suite to drive end-to-end processes through better collaboration. Sponsors and CROs benefit from easy access to information for seamless adverse event processing, while interactive reports and dashboards provide the visibility to identify delays and streamline reporting submissions to health authorities.

“More companies are adopting Veeva Vault Safety Suite applications to drive faster, more efficient case management,” said Kelly Traverso, vice president, Veeva Vault Safety strategy. “Our customers view Veeva as a strategic partner, and we’re committed to delivering advanced capabilities that make it easy to keep up with evolving regulations and changing market dynamics.”

Veeva continues to bring innovations to market that simplify pharmacovigilance processes. Over the last year, Veeva has added new capabilities, including MedDRA multilingual browser, multi-case E2B import, and local language to English intake.

The Veeva Vault Safety Suite includes Veeva Vault Safety and Veeva Vault SafetyDocs to manage end-to-end drug safety processes.
